Merry Christmas!

As we step into this joyful Christmas season, I hope you find moments of rest, reflection, and connection with the people who bring light into your life. You have poured your energy, patience, and heart into your classrooms this year, and your impact reaches far beyond the walls of your school.

This season is a beautiful reminder that hope shines brightest in the small, steady acts of kindness—just like the ones you show your students every day. Your dedication transforms lives in ways you may never fully see, but please know that it matters deeply. As you turn the lights out in your classroom on December 19, 2025, close out the year and look forward to 2026. I want to encourage you to breathe, reset, and renew your strength. The work you do is powerful, and the world needs your gifts. The New Year brings fresh opportunities, new challenges, and countless moments to inspire, guide, and celebrate your students' growth.

May this Christmas bring you peace, joy, and well-deserved rest. And may the New Year greet you with renewed energy, clear purpose, and the confidence that you are making a difference every single day. Thank you for showing up. Thank you for caring. Thank you for being the steady light your students look toward.

Merry Christmas, and here's to a strong, hope-filled New Year!
