

.....

February Newsletter

How are you doing in February?

.....

✦ TMEA Is Almost Here! ✦

Teachers—get ready! Next week at TMEA is your chance to refill your creative tank, discover brand-new lessons and repertoire, and remember why you fell in love with teaching music in the first place.

From joyful classroom-ready ideas and inspiring performances to reconnecting with your people (the ones who get it), TMEA is a gift you give your students and yourself. 🎵❤️

Come ready to learn, laugh, sing, and leave with:

- Fresh ideas you can use returning to your classroom.
- Music that makes your students light up!
- Encouragement that lasts long after the convention ends.

We can't wait to celebrate you at the Elementary Business meeting on Thursday @ 5pm at the Grand Hyatt. We would love to hear about all the incredible work you do for kids every day.

See you in San Antonio—let's make it a convention to remember! 🎉🎵

Notable news to teachers

Danny Go! - YouTube

Music! Dancing! Learning! Bears! 🎵🐻👧👦👨👩

“Danny Go!” is a live-action educational children's show filled with music, movement and silliness. Created in 2019 by 3 childhood friends in Charlotte, North Carolina, the show inspires learning and off-the-couch exercise for kids ages 3 to 7.

Here's what you'll find in our videos: + Catchy, upbeat dance-along songs that kids AND parents can enjoy together + Kindergarten-level learning (math basics, vocabulary, science experiments) + Basic lessons about friendship, kindness & respect + Good-natured silliness and fun + Real-life exploration (i.e. animal shelter, fire station, trampoline park)

Danny Go is a wonderful way to end or begin your music lesson, or in the middle of your lesson when you need them to focus again.

The Children's Consortium For The Arts
info@childrensconsortiumforthearts.org

