Happy 4th of July!

Happy 4th of July!

As the fireworks of our 250th year celebration fade into cherished memories, I hope your holiday was filled with laughter, meaningful moments, and time spent with family and friends. Summer has a unique way of reminding us to slow down, breathe deeply, and appreciate the people and experiences that matter most.

As educators, we spend so much of the school year pouring ourselves into our students. These next few weeks are your opportunity to refill your own cup. Rest. Rejuvenate. Read something that inspires you. Sing for the joy of singing. Take a walk. Laugh often. Whatever renews your spirit, give yourself permission to embrace it.

Before long, many of us will gather at TCDA, where hundreds of voices will unite with one shared purpose—to learn, to grow, and to celebrate the incredible gift of music education. There is something truly special about being surrounded by colleagues who understand the joys and challenges of our profession. Together, we are reminded that we are part of something much larger than ourselves.

As you prepare for a new school year, remember that every rehearsal, every lesson, every encouraging word, and every song you teach has the power to shape a child's confidence, creativity, and love of music. Your influence reaches far beyond the classroom walls. May this season refresh your heart, renew your passion, and remind you why you chose this extraordinary calling. The best music is yet to be made, and countless young voices are waiting for the inspiration that only you can provide.

Enjoy the rest of your summer, and I look forward to seeing many of you soon as we join together in one voice at TCDA. Here's to a year filled with joyful singing, meaningful connections, and unforgettable musical moments!
